An introduction to Intertask.

Who we are

We are a group of highly experienced people who apply our specialised skills in a teamwork approach to event planning and management.

We call ourselves Intertask. A Canadian owned company with head offices in Ottawa and operations across Canada.

What we do

Intertask has three divisions. Each with a particular focus of operation.

The Conference Arrangements Division works as an aid to the planning and management of conferences, conventions and annual meetings.

The Special Events Planning Division operates as a resource to the planners of one-time projects, making available to them our experience in similar projects.

The Communication Services Division works as coordinators and problem solvers for all the communication elements necessary for the effective presentation of organised events.

How we work

Think of us: 1. As general contractors where you only have to deal with one contact person.* No matter how much work you need done.

*(It's usually one of our senior partners).

2. As consultants, if you want expert advice.

3. Or if you simply need experienced specialists to complete your own operational team, we can provide them.

A get together will establish your requirements. And from this information we can select a team for your approval.

The team will be chosen from our Intertask staff specialists — for planning and management skills. And from a carefully selected network of subcontractors — for technical skills and services.

All work of course is done with strict adherence to your budget. Which brings us to our main business purpose. Our viability as a company relies on Intertask being the most cost-effective option. So we strive to save you money at every opportunity. By time-saving. By effectiveness of presentation. By simplicity of operation.

ADMINISTRATOR OF THE GOVERNMENT

Up to May 7, 1901, it was provided by Royal Letters Patent that the "powers granted His Excellency may in the case of his death, incapacity or absence, be given to the Lieutenant-Governor for the time being of Canada, or in his absence to such person as Her Majesty might, by warrant, appoint to be Administrator, or in the absence of such Lieutenant-Governor or Administrator to the Senior Military Officer for the time being in command of Her Majesty's regular Forces in the Dominion".

Upon the date mentioned a dormant Comm. passed under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet appointing the Chief Justice for the time being of the Supreme Court of Canada, or in the case of the death, incapacity, removal or absence from Canada of the Chief Justice, the Senior Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, to be Administrator of the Government of the Dominion in the event of the death, incapacity, removal or absence of the Governor-General.

The Royal Letters Patent of June 15, 1905, which provided for the change in the designation of His Excellency's office from that of "Governor-General in and over the Dominion of Canada" to that of "Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Dominion of Canada", contained the same provision as to the Administrator as the dormant Commission, and that instrument, being thus rendered superfluous, was withdrawn and cancelled.

The Administrator is vested with all the powers and authorities granted to the Governor-General by letters patent or otherwise. (See Supreme Court of Canada.)

THE DOMINION OF CANADA

Canada occupies the northern half of the North American Continent with the exception of Alaska and Greenland, extending in longitude from Cape Spear, Newfoundland, at 52° 37′ W, to Mount St. Elias, Yukon Territory, at 141° W, a distance of 88° 23′ or 3,223 miles. In latitude it stretches from Middle Island in Lake Erie, at 41° 41′ N, to the North Pole. The northernmost point of land is Cape Columbia on Ellesmere Island, at 83° 07′ N, and the straight-line distance from Middle Island to Cape Columbia is 2,875 miles.

In shape, Canada resembles a distorted parallelogram with its four corners making important salients. In the north the salient formed by the Arctic Archipelago, which penetrates deep into the Arctic basin, guards the northern approaches to the Continent from Europe and Asia and makes Canada neighbour to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. In the south the salient of peninsular Ontario thrusts far into the heart of the United States. In the east the salient of Labrador and the Island of Newfoundland commands the shortest crossings of the North Atlantic Ocean and links Canada geographically with Britain and France. In the west the broad arc of land between Vancouver in southern British Columbia and Whitehorse in Yukon Territory provides the shortest crossings of the North Pacific Ocean between continental North America and the Far East. Canada thus lies at the crossroads of contact with the principal powers and some of the most populous areas of the world.

In size, Canada is the largest country in the Western Hemisphere and the second largest country in the world. Its area of 3,851,809 sq. miles may be compared with that of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 8,649,512 sq. miles, the United States of America (including Alaska and Hawaii), 3,615,214 sq. miles, and Brazil, 3,286,478 sq. miles. It is more than forty times the size of Britain and eighteen times that of France. The immense size of the country, while encompassing many resources and seeming to afford much scope for settlement, imposes its own burdens and limitations, particularly because much of the land is mountainous and rocky or is under an arctic climate. The developed portion is probably not more than one third of the total; the occupied farm land is less than 8 p.c. and the currently accessible productive forest land 19 p.c. of the total.

The territories which now constitute the Dominion of Canada came under the British flag at various times, some by settlement and others by conquest or cession. Nova Scotia (Acadia) was discovered by the Cabots, in the service of King Henry VII, in 1497. The part of Canada, now forming the Province of Quebec was discovered by Jacques Cartier, in the service of King Francis I of France, in 1534. The colony of Halifax was founded in 1749. By the treaty of Utrecht (1713) Acadia and the Hudson Bay Territory (Hudson Bay was discovered by Henry Hudson in 1610) were acknowledged to be British Territory. The Hudson Bay company's charter, conferring right of government over the territory now known as the Province of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and the North-West Territories, was granted in 1670. The old French Colony of Canada was surrendered by the capitulation of Montreal, signed September 8, 1760 and along with the Prince Edward Island, and part of the present Province of New Brunswick, formally ceded to Great Britain by France under the Treaty of Paris, signed Feb. 10, 1763.

Vancouver Island was acknowledged to be British by the Oregon Boundary Treaty of 1846, and British Columbia was occupied in 1858.

As originally constituted, the Dominion of Canada was composed of the provinces of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick. They were united under the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament (30 Victoria, Chapter III) passed in 1867, and commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1867," although its full official designation originally was: —"An Act for the Union of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and the government thereof, and for the purposes connected therewith." This Act received the Royal assent March 29th, 1867, and came into effect by virtue of Royal Proclamation, July 1st, 1867. This Act expressly provides that the Constitution of the Dominion shall be "similar in principle to that of the United Kingdom" (1st clause), so that the executive authority shall be vested in the Sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland, and carried on in her name by a Governor-General and Council "to aid and advise in the government of Canada, to be styled the Queen's Privy Council for Canada." (Clauses 9, 10 and 11). Provision was made in the Act for the Admission of British Columbia, Prince Edward Island, The North-West Territories, and Newfoundland into the Dominion (Clause 146). Newfoundland entered Confederation, March 31, 1949. In 1869 the extreme region known under the various designations of "Rupert's Land," "the Hudson Bay Territory," and "the North-West Territory," was added to the Dominion by purchase from the Hudson Bay Company. The Province of Manitoba was set apart out of a portion of its (32-33 Victoria, Chap. 3), and admitted into the Confederation, July 15, 1870.

July 20, 1871, the Province of British Columbia, and July 1, 1873, the Province of Prince Edward Island, respectively entered the confederation.

June 25, 1886, the Royal Assent was given to "An Act respecting the representation in the Parliament of Canada of Territories which for the time being form part of the Dominion of Canada, but are not included in any Province," commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1886," (49-50 Victoria, Chapter XXXV).

This Act provides that the Parliament of Canada may, from time to time, make provisions for the representation in the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, or in either of them, of any Territories which, for the time being, form part of the Dominion of Canada but are not included in any Province thereof.

The Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan were formed from the provisional districts of Alberta, Athabaska, Assiniboia and Saskatchewan (4-5 Edward VII, Chap. 3 and 42), and were admitted to the Union as Provinces on September 1st, 1905.

During the first session of the 12th Parliament a bill was passed extending the areas of Manitoba, Ontario, and Quebec north-ward by adding to those provinces portions of North-West Territory.

THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA

The present Canadian system of government which was established under the British North America Act of 1867, is a Federal Union, the first of its kind in the British Empire. It comprises a general or central government controlling matters essential to the development, the permanency and the unity of the Dominion as a whole, and also a number of provincial governments having the control and management of certain clearly defined local matters naturally and conveniently falling within their jurisdiction. These several governments are administered in strict accordance with the principles of British parliamentary government.

The executive Power of the Government of the Dominion of Canada, as also the chief command of the military and naval forces is vested in the Queen, represented by the Governor-General, appointed by Her Majesty the Queen and advised by a Cabinet chosen from members of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada, and consisting of ministers holding departmental offices, besides, often, one or more ministers without portfolios. The government holds office as long as it has the confidence of the popular branch of Parliament.

According to the B.N.A. Act, 1867, Sec. 55, where a Bill passed by the Houses of Parliament is presented to the Governor-General for the Queen's assent, he shall declare, according to his discretion, but subject to the provisions of the mentioned Act and to Her Majesty's instruction, either that he assents thereto in the Queen's name, or that he withholds the Queen's assent, or that he reserves the Bill for the signification of the Queen's pleasure.

Disallowance of Bill—The present constitutional position is that the power of disallowance can no longer be exercised in relation to Dominion Legislation.

As to the reservation of bills, said reservation could take place only upon the advice of Her Majesty's Government in the Dominion of Canada as it would not be in accordance with constitutional practice for advice to be tendered to Her Majesty by Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom against the views of the Government of the Dominion concerned

THE PARLIAMENT OF CANADA

The British North America Act, 1867, provides:—

"There shall be one Parliament for Canada, consisting of the Queen, an Upper House styled the Senate, and the House of Commons." (Clause 17.)

"There shall be a Session of the Parliament of Canada once at least in every year, so that twelve months shall not intervene between the last Sitting of the Parliament in one Session and its first Sitting in the next Session." (Clause 20.)

"The Governor-General shall, from time to time, in the Queen's name, by instrument under the Great Seal of Canada, summon and call together the House of Commons." (Clause 38.)

The Parliament and Government of Canada (Sec. 132 B.N.A. Act), possess all powers necessary or proper for performing the Obligations of Canada or of any Province thereof, as Part of the British Empire, towards Foreign Countries, arising under Treaties between the Empire and such Foreign Countries.

Either the English or the French language may be used by any person in the Debates of the House of the Parliament of Canada and of the Houses of the Legislation of Quebec, and both these languages are used in the respective records and Journals of those Houses; and either of those languages may be used by any person or in any Pleading or Process or in issuing from any Court of Canada established under the B.N.A. Act and in or from all or any of the Courts of Quebec.

As the Dominion of Canada possesses a system of federal government, her legislative powers are limited to certain subjects of Dominion or National import, set forth in Section 9 of the British North America Act of 1867, as follows:—

" 1. The Public Debt and Property.

" 2. The Regulation of Trade and Commerce.

" 3. The Raising of Money by any Mode or System of Taxation.

THE SENATE OF CANADA

The Senate of Canada was created by the British North America Act, 1867. Section 17 of that Act declares "there shall be One Parliament for Canada, consisting of the Queen, an Upper House styled the Senate and the House of Commons".

The Senate as originally constituted at Confederation consisted of 72 members, the representation being as follows: 24 for the Province of Ontario, 24 for the Province of Quebec and 24 for the Maritime Provinces, comprising at that time Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

A person to be eligible for appointment to the Senate must (1) be of the full age of thirty years, (2) be either a natural born or a naturalized subject of the Queen, (3) be the owner of real property, free of all encumbrances, to the value of $4,000, within the province for which he is appointed, (4) have real and personal property together worth $4,000 over and above his debts and liabilities, and (5) be a resident of the province for which he is appointed. In the case of Quebec, he must have his real property qualification in the electoral division for which he is appointed or be a resident in that division.

Senators are appointed by the Governor General. A senator's place becomes vacant (1) if for two consecutive sessions of Parliament he fails to attend, (2) if he becomes a subject or citizen of a foreign power, (3) if he is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent, applies for the benefit of any law relating to insolvent debtors or becomes a public defaulter, (4) if he is attainted of treason or convicted of felony or of any infamous crime, or (5) if he ceases to qualify in respect of property.

The Governor General in Council appoints the Speaker of the Senate, the Clerk of the Senate and the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod. The debates and proceedings of the Senate are governed by rules and orders modelled to a considerable extent after those of the British House of Lords.

Each of the Senators from Quebec is appointed to represent one of 24 divisions corresponding with the electoral divisions of the former Province of Lower Canada. Senators for other provinces are not appointed for any designated divisions.

The first increase in the membership of the Senate took place in 1870 when Manitoba, upon entering Confederation, was awarded two seats. The following year, British Columbia was admitted into the Union and was entitled to be represented by three senators. In 1873, Prince Edward Island, upon entering Confederation, was granted a representation of four members, in accordance with section 147 of the British North America Act, and by virtue of the same section the representation of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick was reduced by two senators each. In 1882, Manitoba was given an additional member, in accordance with its decennial census, and in 1892 another. In 1887 the Northwest Territories were given two senators. In 1903, by virtue of Chapter 42 of the Statutes of Canada of that year, the representation of the Northwest Territories was increased to four. Upon creation of the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan in 1905, each was allotted 4 seats in the Senate.

In 1905, the Senate was constituted of 87 members as follows:—Ontario, 24; Quebec, 24; Nova Scotia, 10; New Brunswick, 10; Prince Edward Island, 4; British Columbia, 3; Manitoba, 4, Saskatchewan, 4; Alberta, 4.

In 1915, an amendment to the British North America Act increased the number of Senators from 72 to 96. The amendment also provided that the divisions of Canada, in relation to the constitution of the Senate, be increased from 3 to 4, the fourth division to comprise the Western Provinces of Manitoba, British Columbia, Saskatchewan and Alberta, each to have a representation of 6 senators. Provision was also made that, if Newfoundland entered Confederation at any time thereafter, it would be entitled to be represented by 6 senators. Newfoundland joined the Union in 1949, bringing the total number of senators to 102.

The most recent change in representation was made on June 19, 1975 by Chapter 53 of the Statutes of Canada, which amended the B.N.A. Act by increasing the total number of senators from 102 to 104, adding one senator each for the Yukon Territory and the Northwest Territories. Thus, the Senate now has the following membership: Ontario, 24; Quebec, 24; Nova Scotia, 10; New Brunswick, 10; Prince Edward Island, 4; Manitoba, 6; British Columbia, 6; Saskatchewan, 6; Alberta, 6; Newfoundland, 6; Northwest Territories, 1; and Yukon Territory, 1.

The eligibility of women for appointment to the Senate of Canada was declared by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in 1929, and in February 1930, for the first time in the history of Canada, a woman was appointed to the Senate.

Salaries and Allowances. — Senators receive a sessional allowance of $24,000 per annum as well as an annual expense allowance of $5,300. In addition, for each session of Parliament, a senator may be paid expenses for travelling between his place of residence and Ottawa.

The Speaker of the Senate receives a salary of $12,000 in addition to the sessional allowance and the expense allowance.

Tenure of office. — Under the British North America Act, senators were originally appointed for life, but by Chapter 4 of the Statutes of Canada, 1965, a senator appointed after June 2, 1965 holds his place in the Senate until he attains the age of seventy-five years.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS OF CANADA

The House of Commons of Canada is elected by the people for five years, unless sooner dissolved by the Governor General. Members require no property qualifications, but they must be of the age of 18, and Canadian citizens or other British subjects, not disqualified by law. The Speaker is chosen by the House at the opening sitting of the first session of each parliament.

The members are elected by constituencies and voting is by ballot.

The number of members of the House of Commons is regulated by the following clauses of the British North America Act, 1867, as amended in 1974: —

51. (1) The number of members of the House of Commons and the representation of the provinces therein shall upon the coming into force of this subsection and thereafter on the completion of each decennial census be readjusted by such authority, in such manner, and from such time as the Parliament of Canada from time to time provides, subject and according to the following Rules:

1. There shall be assigned to Quebec seventy-five members in the readjustment following the completion of the decennial census taken in the year 1971, and thereafter four additional members in each subsequent readjustment.

2. Subject to Rules 5(2) and (3), there shall be assigned to a large province a number of members equal to the number obtained by dividing the population of the large province by the electoral quotient of Quebec.

3. Subject to Rules 5(2) and (3), there shall be assigned to a small province a number of members equal to the number obtained by dividing

(a) the sum of the populations, determined according to the results of the penultimate decennial census, of the provinces (other than Quebec) having populations of less than one and a half million, determined according to the results of that census, by the sum of the numbers of members assigned to those provinces in the readjustment following the completion of that census; and

(b) the population of the small province by the quotient obtained under paragraph (a).

4 Subject to Rules 5(1)(a), (2) and (3), there shall be assigned to an intermediate province a number of members equal to the number obtained

(a) by dividing the sum of the populations of the provinces (other than Quebec) having populations of less than one and a half million by the sum of the numbers of members assigned to those provinces under any of Rules 3, 5(1)(b), (2) and (3);

(b) by dividing the population of the intermediate province by the quotient obtained under paragraph (a); and

(c) by adding to the number of members assigned to the intermediate province in the readjustment following the completion of the penultimate decennial census one-half of the difference resulting from the subtraction of that number from the quotient obtained under paragraph (b).

5. (1) On any readjustment,

(a) if no province (other than Quebec) has a population of less than one and a half million, Rule 4 shall not be applied and, subject to Rules 5(2) and (3), there shall be assigned to an intermediate province a number of members equal to the number obtained by dividing

(i) the sum of the populations, determined according to the results of the penultimate decennial census, of the provinces (other than Quebec) having populations of not less than one and a half million and not more than two and a half million, determined according to the results of that census, by the sum of the numbers of members assigned to those provinces in the readjustment following the completion of that census, and

(ii) the population of the intermediate province by the quotient obtained under paragraph (i);

(b) if a province (other than Quebec) having a population of

(i) less than one and a half million, or

(ii) not less than one and a half million and not more than two and a half million does not have a population greater than its population determined according to the results of the penultimate decennial census, it shall, subject to Rules 5(2) and (3), be assigned the number of members assigned to it in the readjustment following the completion of that census.

(2) On any readjustment,

(a) if, under any of Rules 2 to 5(1), the number of members to be assigned to a province (in this paragraph referred to as "the first province") is smaller than the number of members to be assigned to any other province not having a population greater than that of the first province, those Rules shall not be applied to the first province and it shall be assigned a number of members equal to the largest number of members to be assigned to any other province not having a population greater than that of the first province;

(b) if, under any of Rules 2 to 5(1)(a), the number of members to be assigned to a province is smaller than the number is smaller than the number of members assigned to it in the readjustment following the completion of the penultimate decennial census, those Rules shall not be applied to it and it shall be assigned the latter number of members;

(c) if both paragraphs (a) and (b) apply to a province, it shall be assigned a number of members equal to the greater of the numbers produced under those paragraphs.

(3) On any readjustment,

(a) if the electoral quotient of a province (in this paragraph referred to as "the first province") obtained by dividing its population by the number of members to be assigned to it under any of Rules 2 to 5(2) is greater than the electoral quotient of Quebec, those Rules shall not be applied to the first province and it shall be assigned a number of members equal to the number obtained by dividing its population by the electoral quotient of Quebec;

(b) if, as a result of the application of Rule 6(2)(a), the number of members assigned to a province under paragraph (a) equals the number of members to be assigned to it under any of Rules 2 to 5(2), it shall be assigned that number of members and paragraph (a) shall cease to apply to that province.

6. (1) In these Rules,

"electoral quotient" means, in respect of a province, the quotient obtained by dividing its population, determined according to the results of the then most recent decennial census, by the number of members to be assigned to it under any of Rules 1 to 5(3) in the readjustment following the completion of that census;

"intermediate province" means a province (other than Quebec) having a population greater than its population determined according to the results of the penultimate decennial census but not more than two and a half million and not less than one and a half million;

"large province" means a province (other than Quebec) having a population greater than two and a half million;

"penultimate decennial census" means the decennial census that preceded the then most recent decennial census;

"population" means, except where otherwise specified, the population determined according to the results of the then most recent decennial census;

"small province" means a province (other than Quebec) having a population greater than is population determined according to the results of the penultimate decennial census and less than one and a half million.

(2) For the purposes of these Rules,

(a) if any fraction less than one remains upon completion of the final calculation that produces the number of members to be assigned to a province, that number of members shall equal the number so produced disregarding the fraction;

(b) if more than one readjustment follows the completion of a decennial census, the most recent of those readjustments shall, upon taking effect, be deemed to be the only readjustment following the completion of that census;

(c) a readjustment shall not take effect until the termination of the then existing Parliament."

At Confederation (1867) the House of Commons consisted of 181 members of which Ontario returned 82, Quebec 65, Nova Scotia 19; and New Brunswick, 15. During the fourth session of the 1st Parliament the representation was increased to 191, Manitoba (4 members) and British Columbia (6 members) having entered Confederation.

The representation in the 2nd Parliament (July 8, 1872, to Jan. 2, 1874), under the Redistribution Act of 1872, was 200 up to the last sessions, when there was an increase of 6 members owing to the admission of Prince Edward Island to Confederation. Ontario had 88 members; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; Manitoba, 4; British Columbia, 6.

In the 3rd Parliament (Jan. 2, 1874, to August 17, 1878), and in the 4th Parliament (Aug. 17, 1878, to May 18, 1882) the representation remained as at the dissolution of the 2nd Parliament, viz:—Ontario, 88; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; Manitoba, 4; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 6. Total 206.

The representation in the 5th Parliament (Feb. 8, 1883, to Jan. 15, 1887) under the Representation Act of 1887, was increased to 211, the Ontario representation being increased from 88 to 92 and that of Manitoba from 4 to 5.

In the 6th Parliament (Jan. 15, 1887, to Feb. 3, 1891), the representation remained unchanged, except that in 1887 the North-West Territories were granted representation with 4 members, thus making a total representation of 215.

During the 7th Parliament (Feb. 3, 1891, to April 24, 1896) there was no change in the representation.

In the 8th Parliament (April 24, 1896, to Oct. 9, 1900), under the Representation Act of 1892-3, the representation was as follows:—Ontario, 92; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 20; New Brunswick, 14, Manitoba, 7; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 5; North-West Territories, 4. Total, 213.

During the 9th Parliament (Oct. 9, 1900, to Sept 29, 1904), there was but one change in the representation, a seat being added for the Yukon Territory (Chap. 37, 1902). This made 214 members, distributed as follows:—Ontario, 86; Quebec, 65, Nova Scotia, 18, New Brunswick, 13, Manitoba, 10, North-West Territories, 10; British Columbia, 7; Prince Edward Island, 4, Yukon Territory, 1.

The House remained so constituted until the dissolution of the 10th Parliament, September 17, 1908.

During the first session of the Tenth Parliament of Canada (1905) provision was made for the creation of the new provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta out of part of the North-West Territories, and provision was made for the taking of a census of population in the two new provinces, as also in Manitoba, in the middle year of each decade commencing with 1906. The results of the first quinquennial census made necessary, according to the Saskatchewan and Alberta Acts, a readjustment of the representation of Saskatchewan and Alberta Acts, a readjustment of the representation of Saskatchewan and Alberta in the House of Commons, and at the session of 1906-07 an amendment was passed to the Representation Act (Chapter 5 of the Revised Statutes, 1906) providing that the House of Commons shall consist of two hundred and twenty-one (221) members, as follows: Ontario, 86; Quebec, 65; Saskatchewan, 10, (a gain of 4); British Columbia, 7; Alberta, 7, (a gain of 3); Prince Edward Island, 4, Yukon Territory, 1.

By a special clause embodied in this Act, it only took effect upon the dissolution of the 10th Parliament.

During the session of 1914 (3rd session 12th Parlt.) a Redistribution Bill was passed, providing for an increase in the number of members of the House of Commons to 235, divided among the provinces as follows:—Ontario, 82; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 16; New Brunswick, 11; Manitoba, 15; British Columbia, 13; Prince Edward Island, 4; Saskatchewan, 16; Alberta, 12; Yukon, 1. Total 235. The new Act came into effect with the dissolution of the 12th Parliament

During the session of 1923 (2nd of the 14th Parl.) the Government introduced a Redistribution Bill based upon the census of 1921. It was not passed before prorogation and was accordingly re-introduced at the 1924 session and with certain amendments adopted. Under its provisions the Maritime Provinces lose two members; both in Nova Scotia; the Prairie Provinces gain eleven—four going to Alberta, five to Saskatchewan and two to Manitoba. British Columbia gains one. The other provinces remain as at present, as does the representation of Yukon Territory. The net increase in representation for the whole Dominion is, therefore, ten.

The Representation Act, 1933, based on the census of 1931 was passed at the session of 1933 (4th of the 17th Parl.). It reduced the membership of Nova Scotia to 12 and New Brunswick to 10; increasing Alberta to 17, and British Columbia to 16, other Provinces remaining the same. However in 1949, with the Union of Newfoundland, the representation was increased to 262 members.

The Representation Act 1952, based on the Census of 1951 was passed at the Session of 1952 (6th of the 21st Parliament). It reduced Nova Scotia to 12 (13), Manitoba to 14 (16); Saskatchewan to 17 (20); increasing Ontario, 85 (83); Quebec, 75 (73); British Columbia, 22 (18); Yukon 1, Mackenzie River (N.W.T.) 1 (1). Other Provinces remained the same.

The representation set forth in the preceding paragraph was superseded on repeal of the Representation Act (when the under-mentioned "Representation Order" became effective on dissolution of the 27th Parliament by virtue of the Electoral Boundaries Readjustment Act, given Royal Assent on November 20, 1964, S.C. 1964-1965 c. 31). The Electoral Boundaries Readjustment Act provides in section 22(2) for the proclamation of a "Representation Order" which shall:

(a) specify the number of members of the House of Commons who shall be elected for each of the provinces as calculated by the Representation Commissioner under section 12; and

(b) divide each of the provinces into electoral districts, describe the boundaries of each such district and specify the representation and name to be given thereto, in accordance with the recommendations contained in the reports referred to in subsection (1).

Section 24 provides for the coming into force of the said order by proclamation in the Canada Gazette not later than five days after the issue of this proclamation. This proclamation was published in Part II of The Canada Gazette, Volume 100 Extra, on Monday, June 20, 1966. The new Act provides for the following membership of the House of Commons for subsequent Parliaments after the 27th. (See sections 30 and 31 of the Act for representation for the Yukon Territory and the Northwest Territories):

Ontario	88
Quebec	74
Nova Scotia	11
New Brunswick	10
Manitoba	13
British Columbia	23
Prince Edward Island	4

Total	264

By proclamation made January 3, 1975 and published in the Canada Gazette Part I pursuant to section 12 of the Electoral Boundaries Readjustment Act, and the Representation Act, 1974, the number of members of the House of Commons to be assigned to each of the provinces are as follows:

Ontario	95
Quebec	75
Nova Scotia	11
New Brunswick	10
Manitoba	14
British Columbia	28
Prince Edward Island	4
Saskatchewan	14
Alberta	21
Newfoundland	7
Total	279

In 1975 legislation was enacted giving the Northwest Territories two seats. The representation for the Yukon Territory remains one, thereby making a total number of 282 members of the House of Commons effective at the termination of the 30th Parliament.

The functions, powers and prerogatives of the Canadian House of Commons approximate as closely as may be to those possessed by the Lower House of the Parliament of the United Kingdom. Bills for appropriating any part of the Public Revenue, or for imposing any Tax or Impost, must originate in the House of Commons. It is not lawful for the House of Commons to adopt or pass any vote, Resolution, Address, or Bill for the Appropriation of any Part of the Public Revenue, or of Tax or Impost for any Purpose, that has not been first recommended to the House by Message of the Governor General in the Session in which such Vote, Resolution, Address or Bill is proposed.

In 1887, when the old Northwest Territories were first given representation in the House of Commons, four electoral divisions were created:

(1)—Assiniboia East, adjoining Province of Manitoba; (2) Assiniboia West, next; (3) Alberta, extending to the boundary of British Columbia, and (4) Saskatchewan, in the north. Under the Act of 1903, the two Assiniboias and Saskatchewan were given six seats, namely: Assiniboia East, Assiniboia West, Humboldt, Mackenzie, Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan. These old divisions practically compose the present province of Saskatchewan, which according to the Act. of 1906-07 returns 10 members to the House of Commons, the constituencies being: Assiniboia, Battleford, Humboldt, Mackenzie, Moose Jaw, Prince Albert, Qu'Appelle, Regina, Salcoats and Saskatoon.

In the Redistribution Act preceding the general elections of 1882, the original two counties disappeared as such; but the new division of "Cornwall and Stormont" replaced them. Owing to the operation of the Redistribution Act, the constituencies of Lisgar and Selkirk changed names after 1891; that is the constituency called Lisgar up to and including 1891 has since been called Selkirk, and vice versa. So in the above table, the figures for the elections up to and including 1891 are for what to that date was known as the constituency of Selkirk, but which territorially is identical, or practically so, with the present constituency of Lisgar.

(1)—The first elections in Marquette after the admission of Manitoba into Confederation was held March 2, 1871. The return of the returning officer showed that each of the two candidates had received the same number of votes. The return officer had not, as now, the right to give his casting vote. In due course the matter came before the H. of C. and was referred to the Commission of Privileges and Electors, who reported that the return officer should (under the old system of double returns) have declared both candidates elected. Under an order of the House (April 25), the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery attended and on motion of the Hon. Mr. Cameron, of Peel, a resolution was passed, instructing the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery to amend the return so as to declare both candidates elected. This was done, and Dr. Lynch, who was present in Ottawa, forthwith subscribed to the oath and took his seat. Then Hon. Mr. Cameron drew attention to the rule which provised that a member must withdraw while the matter of his election was before the House, whereupon Dr. Lynch withdrew. May 13, McKay, having arrived in Ottawa, presented himself and took the oath and his seat. Under similar conditions as Dr. Lynch he withdrew. A delay of six weeks was allowed the Elec. Comm. to enquire into the matter. Before the House finally disposed of the matter Parliament was dissolved (See Journals of the House.)

(2)—Mr. Cunningham died while the protest against his return was before the courts.

So in the above table the figures for the elections up to, and including 1891, are for what to that date was known as the constituency of Lisgar, but which territorially is identical with the present constituency of Selkirk.

OFFICE OF THE REPRESENTATION COMMISSIONER

The Office of the Representation Commissioner was established by the Representation Commissioner Act, 1963 (Chapter R-6, R.S.C. 1970).

The readjustment of the representation in the House of Commons is governed by the Electoral Boundaries Readjustment Act (Chapter E-2, R.S.C. 1970) and the Representation Act 1974.

PRINCIPAL OFFICERS

Representation Commissioner ..... N. J. Castonguay

Administrator ..... J. L. Roy

Personnel and Finance ..... Mrs. M. Strelbisky

Since Confederation, the readjustment of the representation of the Provinces in the House of Commons had been carried out by a committee of the House of Commons.

In December, 1963 the Representation Commissioner Act was passed setting up the office and duties of the Representation Commissioner. The legislation setting up a new method of representation readjustment is known as the Electoral Boundaries Readjustment Act.

That Act states that after each decennial census, ten commissions are to be established (one for each province) to consider and report upon the readjustment of the representation of the provinces in the House of Commons. Each commission is governed by a population quota and cannot depart from the electoral quota to a greater extent than 25% more or 25% less.

The readjustment was completed in June, 1966 when a proclamation declared the representation order to be in force, effective upon the dissolution of the then existing Parliament. The commissions were obliged to use the 1961 decennial census figures in their work.

Prior to this redistribution there were 265 seats. The number of seats is now 264 and this is as a result of the application of the rules in Section 51 of the British North America Act.

The following shows the comparative number of seats per province before and after the readjustment.

	Members Prior to Redistribution	Present Members
Newfoundland	7	7
Nova Scotia	12	11
Quebec	75	74
Ontario	85	88
Manitoba	14	13
Saskatchewan	17	13
Alberta	17	19
British Columbia	22	23
New Brunswick	10	10
Prince Edward Island	4	4
Yukon	1	1
Northwest Territories	1	1

With the 1971 census figures a second readjustment took place based on the rules set forth in the Acts referred to above and the British North America Act, Sections 51 and 51A

The House of Commons did not agree with the Reports prepared by the ten Electoral Boundaries Commissions in 1973. Legislation known as the Electoral Boundaries Suspension Act (Chapter 23, Statutes of Canada 1973-74) was assented to July 27th, 1973 in order to suspend the operation of the Electoral Boundaries Readjustment act until December 31st, 1974.

On December 16th, 1974 Bill C-36 cited as "Representation Act 1974" was passed by the House of Commons. It was assented to December 20th, 1974.

The object of this Act is to amend Section 51(1) of the British North America Act 1967 in order to provide greater representation in the House of Commons.

This Act also removes the temporary suspension of the Electoral Boundaries Readjustment Act and allows the readjustment process based on the 1971 census to be carried out.

Under the new legislation the number of Members of House of Commons to be assigned to each of the provinces is as follows:

Ontario	95
Quebec	75
Nova Scotia	11
New Brunswick	10
Manitoba	14
British Columbia	28
Prince Edward Island	4
Saskatchewan	14
Alberta	21
Newfoundland	7
Northwest Territories	1
Yukon	1
Total	281

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO

Sessional indemnity $15,000 and expense allowance $7,500; emolument of Mr. Speaker $9,000 in addition to his indemnity and expense allowance as a Member of the Legislative Assembly. (Legislative Assembly Amendment Act, 1968-69.)

Last general election September 18, 1975.

The Legislature at present consists of 125 Members elected by popular vote. After some fluctuation prior to 1933 the membership was reduced to 90 by the Representation Act of 1933. A new Representation Act in 1954 increased the membership to 98 and an amendment thereto in 1963 again increased the membership to 108. In 1966 a new Representation Act increased the membership to 117, and the new Representation Act in 1975 increased the membership to the present 125.

Salaries. In addition to his indemnity and allowance as a Member of the Legislative Assembly the Prime Minister receives a salary of $25,000 per annum and an allowance for expenses of representation of $4,500 per annum; similarly, each Minister with portfolio receives a salary as such of $18,000 per annum, as does the Leader of the Opposition, and an allowance for expenses of representation of $3,000 per annum. Ministers without portfolio receive a salary of $7,500 per annum.

SEAT OF GOVERNMENT — WHITEHORSE

The Yukon Territory comprises all that portion of Canada lying north of the Sixtieth Parallel, west of the Northwest Territories. It was created a separate Territory in June 1898 by the Yukon Act

The Yukon Act of 1898 was revised and consolidated by Chapter 53, Statutes of Canada 1953, and Chapter Y2 Revised Statutes of Canada 1970, as amended by C.48 1st Supplement It provides for the Government of the Territory by a Commissioner and Territorial Council The Commissioner is appointed by the Governor-in-Council and administers the Government of the Territory under instructions from the Governor-in-Council or the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development. In Nov. 1970 an Executive Committee, consisting of the Commissioner as Chairman, the two Asst. Commissioners and two of the elected members of the Council, named by the Council, was established by the Minister of Indian Afairs and Northern Development. This Committee is charged with recommending policy to the Commissioner affecting the day to day operation of the Territorial Government. In Dec 1974, the Exec. Comm. was expanded to include three elected members named by the Council. The Council of the Yukon Territory is wholly elected and consists of twelve members from twelve constituencies in the Territory who are elected for a four-year term of office. The legislative powers of the Commissioner in Council are somewhat analogous to the powers of a provincial Lieutenant-Governor and the legislature The Yukon has its own territorial civil service which carries out the administrative function although natural resources other than game are administered by the Federal Dept of Indian Affairs and northern Development

The Yukon Territory is represented in the House of Commons by one Member, from the Electoral District of Yukon.

SUPREME COURT OF CANADA

The Supreme Court of Canada was constituted in 1875 and is now governed by the Supreme Court Act R.S.C. 1970, chapter S-19, as amended.

The Supreme Court of Canada has jurisdiction as the final Court of Appeal in both civil and criminal cases throughout Canada. It is a Court of Appeal in controverted election cases, appeals from the Federal Court of Appeal and the provincial courts of appeal. It may consider constitutional issues between the Provinces and the Federal Government on references respecting the same submitted by the Governor-in-Council. The Supreme Court may also examine and report upon any bill or matter before the Senate or House of Commons, pursuant to the rules in that regard of the Senate or the House of Commons.

The Supreme Court sits in Ottawa, and the judges must reside in the National Capital Region (Bill S-2, Nov. 13, 1974). Three sessions are held in each year, beginning on the fourth Tuesday in January, the fourth Tuesday in April and the first Tuesday in October.

The Supreme Court as originally constituted on 8th April 1875 consisted of a Chief Justice (whose title is Chief Justice of Canada) and five puisne Judges. The number of puisne judges was increased in 1927 to six and in 1949 to eight, so that the Court now consists of the Chief Justice and eight puisne judges. The judges are appointed by the Governor-in-Council by letters patent under the Great Seal of Canada and they automatically cease to hold office on attaining the age of seventy-five years.

Articles VII and VIII of the letters patent issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom (effective 1st October 1947), constituting the office of Governor General and Commander-in-Chief in and over Canada, read as follows: —

VII. And Whereas by The British North America Acts, 1867 to 1946, it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for Us, if We think fit, to authorize Our Governor General to appoint any person or persons, jointly or severally, to be his Deputy or Deputies within any part or parts of Canada, and in that capacity to exercise, during the pleasure of Our Governor General such of the powers, authorities, and functions of Our Governor General as he may deem it necessary or expedient to assign to such Deputy or Deputies, subject to any limitations or directions from time to time expressed or given by Us: Now We do hereby authorize and empower Our Governor General, subject to such limitations and directions, to appoint any person or persons, jointly or severally, to be his Deputy or Deputies within any part or parts of Canada, and in that capacity to exercise, during his pleasure, such of his powers, functions, and authorities, as he may deem it necessary or expedient to assign to him or them: Provided always, that the appointment of such a Deputy or Deputies shall not affect the exercise of any such power, authority or function by Our Governor General in person.

VIII And We do hereby declare Our pleasure to be that, in the event of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence of Our governor General out of Canada, all and every the powers and authorities herein granted to him shall, until Our further pleasure is signified therein, be vested in Our Chief Justice for the time being of Canada, (hereinafter called Our Chief Justice) or, in the case of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence out of Canada of Our Chief Justice, then in the Senior Judge for the time being of the Supreme Court of Canada, then residing in Canada and not being under incapacity; such Chief Justice or Senior Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, while the said powers and authorities are vested in him, to be known as Our Administrator.

Provided always, that the said Senior Judge shall act in the administration of the Government only if and when Our Chief Justice shall not be present within Canada and capable of administering the Government.

Provided further that no such powers or authorities shall vest in such Chief Justice, or other judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, until he shall have taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by Our Governor General.

Provided further that whenever and so often as Our Governor General shall be temporarily absent from Canada, with Our permission, for a period not exceeding one month, then and in every such case Our Governor General may continue to exercise all and every the powers vested in him as fully as if he were residing within Canada, including the power to appoint a Deputy or Deputies as provided in the Eighth Clause of these Our Letters Patent.

Hon. Louis-Philippe de Grandpré, January 1, 1974.

The right of the Administrator to be styled "His Excellency" was asserted by Sir. H. Elzear Taschereau, formerly Chief Justice, while acting as Administrator in the interval between the departure of the Earl of Minto and the arrival of His Excellency Earl Grey, and he was informed by the Secretary of State for the Colonies, in reply to an inquiry, that "the Administrator was rightly styled "His Excellency". By paragraph vii of the Letters Patent, authorized by the British North America Acts, the Governor General may appoint a Deputy. During the absence of the Governor General from Ottawa but within Canada the Chief Justice is usually appointed Deputy Governor General.

By Royal Letters Patent dated September 8th, 1947, and effective October 1st, 1947, the office of Governor General and Commander-in-Chief in and over Canada was constituted. By paragraph viii thereof, in the event of the death, incapacity, removal or absence of the Governor General out of Canada, all his powers and authorities are vested in the Chief Justice of Canada.

THE FEDERAL COURT OF CANADA

(Revised February, 1976)

The Federal Court of Canada is a court of law, equity and admiralty and it is a superior court of record having civil and criminal jurisdiction (section 3 of the Act).

The Court is divided into two divisions called the Federal Court — Appeal Division, and the Federal Court — Trial Division. The Appeal Division may be called the Court of Appeal or the Federal Court of Appeal (section 4 of the Act).

The Court of Appeal consists of the Chief Justice of the Federal Court of Canada and five other judges. The Trial Division consists of the Associate Chief Justice of the Federal Court of Canada and nine other judges. Every judge is an ex officio member of the Division of which he is not a regular member (section 5 of the Act).

While all the full-time judges must reside in or near the National Capital Region (section 7), each Division of the Court can sit any place in Canada and the place and time of the sittings must be arranged to suit the convenience of the litigants.

The Federal Court of Appeal has jurisdiction on appeals from the Trial Division, appeals from Federal Tribunals, review of decisions of Federal Boards and Commissions, appeals from Tribunals and Reviews under Section 28 of the Federal Court Act, and references by Federal Boards and Commissions.

The Trial Division of the Federal Court of Canada has jurisdiction in claims against the Crown, claims by the Crown, miscellaneous cases involving the Crown, claims against or concerning Crown Officers and Servants, relief against Federal Boards, Commissions, and other Tribunals, Inter-Provincial and Federal-Provincial Disputes, Industrial, Industrial Property Matters, Admiralty, Income Tax and Estate Tax Appeals, Aeronautics — Interprovincial Works and Undertakings, residuary jurisdiction for relief if there is no other Canadian Court that has such jurisdiction, jurisdiction in specific matters conferred by Federal Statutes.

The Court has one Registry for all of Canada. That Registry consists of a principal office in Ottawa and other offices in the different parts of the country where the convenience of litigants makes it expedient that there be such offices (section 14 of the Act).

The officer of the Court who has overall responsibility for the operation of the Registry is known as the Administrator of the Court (Rule 200).

INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY COMMISSION

The International Boundary Commission functions by virtue of the Treaty of 1925 between Canada and the United States of America. Under Article IV of this Treaty the Commissioners are empowered and directed to maintain at all times an effective boundary line by repairing, relocating, and rebuilding monuments, and keeping the boundary vista open; to determine the location of any point on the boundary which may become necessary in the settlement of any question that may arise between the two governments; and to report annually to the governments upon the work of the Commission.

The International Boundary Act further empowers the Commission to regulate all "work" or construction within ten feet of the international boundary.

INTERNATIONAL JOINT COMMISSION

The International Joint Commission was established in 1909 by a treaty between the United States of America, Canada and Great Britain. This treaty was confirmed and sanctioned by The International Boundary Waters Treaty Act (S.C., 1911, Chapter 28, as amended).

The Commission deals with the use, obstruction and diversion of boundary waters and rivers crossing the boundary between Canada and the United States. Structures which would change the natural levels of waters at the Boundary require the prior approval of the Commission before work can proceed. In addition, the Commission carries out extensive investigations on questions arising between the Canadian and United States Governments along the "common frontier" and reports its findings with recommendations to such Governments.

It also assists in implementation of the Canada-U.S. Great Lakes Water Quality Agreement of 1972 and more progress reports to the Governments and the public at least annually, with advice and recommendations.

The Commission consists of six members, three appointed by the Government of Canada and three appointed by the President of the United States.

OFFICIAL PRECEDENCE

The establishment and the maintenance of tables or scales of official precedence result from the fact that in all nations and communities there are individuals, who, because they have had entrusted to them by the nation the performance of certain responsible and honourable official or communal functions, are by common accord regarded, either for the time being, or permanently as occupying positions of various degrees of eminence.

In the old patriarchal communities social pre-eminence was naturally accorded to the heads of the tribal families, and precedence throughout the tribes was generally regulated by the seniority of the sons of the patriarchs and the individuals of their families. Of course there were exceptions to this rule, due to the personal ambitions and achievements of individuals.

Since nations have been evolved from the old tribal organizations, an official class of citizens has been developed, comprising those who, besides occupying the usual position of members of the state, have entrusted to them the execution of what have been described as the life functions of the nation; that is such functions as are peculiar to the civic organization in contra-distinction to the general functions exercised and actions performed by individual citizens as independent units. Official service calls in a special degree for a sense of duty to the public trust, and in many cases for a spirit of sacrifice and, if need be, self effacement. In recognition of these conditions, and often for very practical state reasons, special privileges are granted to certain of the more responsible officials within the spheres appointed for them.

"Precedence" has been defined as the priority of place, or superiority of Rank, in the conventional system of arrangement under which the more eminent and dignified orders of a community are classified on occasion of public ceremony and in the intercourse of private life.

Public functions of some form or another occur with more or less frequency in every state, and those who serve and represent the people in official capacities are necessarily the principal, often the only, participants. An ordinary sense of decency, not to speak of dignity, or that wholesome sense of national pride which exists in all races, demands that such functions be orderly, and that places of honour be given to those entrusted by the nation with the administration of its affairs and the guardianship of its interests and honour, and thus, in a very special sense, representing it.

"Tables" or "Scales" of Precedence emanate from the Crown, and they are issued under authority of the Sovereign. The Crown is "the fountain of honour", and it is its undoubted prerogative to confer on any of its subjects, in any part of its dominions, such titles and distinctions and such rank and place "as to it may seem meet and convenient." Its discretion is limited in those cases only wherein it has been submitted to restraint by Act of Parliament

There is not any complete and comprehensive code whereby the scheme of social gradation has been defined and settled, once and for all, on a permanent foundation. The principles and rules at present controlling it have been formulated at different periods and have been derived from various sources.

In Britain, questions of precedence came in the ordinary course of things within the jurisdiction of the Courts of Chivalry in which figured such picturesque officials as lord high constables, earl marshals, kings of arms, heralds, pursuivants, etc. Points of unusual moment were referred to and decided by the sovereign in person, the privy council, or parliament.

Although there were "estates" titles and orders of various degrees in England from earliest historical times the oldest English table of precedence in existence is the "Order of All Estates of Nobles and Gentry" prepared for the coronation of Henry IV in 1399.

In the thirty-first year of King Henry VIII, Parliament, by statutory enactment, took cognizance of Precedence. It then passed the "Act for Placing the Lords," which, although it concerned directly only the Great Officers of State, and referred but incidentally to the places of the Nobility, has since been considered the chief authority for the marshalling of dignitaries.

This Act was originated, it is important to remember, by the desire of the King and it is declared, as a preliminary, that "although it appertained altogether to the Royal Prerogative to give such honour, reputation, and placing to his Councillors and others his subjects as should be seeming to the King's most excellent wisdom, the King was nevertheless pleased and contented for an order to be had and taken in his Most High Court of Parliament for the placing of the Great Officers and Lords."

The Statute of Henry VIII was in the nature of a declaratory Act, confirming the ancient and pre-existing Law of Precedence, and, in confirmation of this, it is a matter of historical fact that the advice of Garter King of Arms was taken before the bill was brought in. This Act of King Henry VIII's parliament still remains the only legislative measure in which it has been attempted to deal directly and systematically with any large and important section of the English scale or Table of Precedence. (There are separate tables for Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Canada and other Commonwealth Countries and the Crown Colonies.)

Where no act of Parliament applies, precedence is determined by the will of the Sovereign or by what is accepted as ancient "usage and established custom."

Precedence in Canada is governed by the Table of Precedence for Canada, approved December 19, 1968, by the Queen of Canada on the advice of the Governor General in Council, shown below.
